Ways that leaders get along with their subordinates

前 - praise; 后 - give some gifts

How do leaders get along with their subordinates?

矛盾对立

前 Oh, well, the first thing that comes to mind is to praise in front of other colleagues when their subordinates achieve some success.

后 Besides, it's also common to see that they can give some gifts to their employees in order to bring people closer.

收 Um, yep, that's what I have in mind for now.

the impacts of the epidemic on the work environment

坏 - limited access to the offices or premises; 好 - some - better working environment - work from home

What are the impacts of the epidemic on the work environment?

回应 - Ok, I can think of several impacts.

细节 1 - On the one hand, for the work environment itself, the most direct impact is limited access to the offices or premises due to the quarantine policy during the epidemic.

细节 2 - On the other hand, for some office workers, it's not surprising to witness that the epidemic makes good impact on the work environment because they can work from home where it's more comfortable and relaxing.

收 - I'm sure there must be more to talk about, but what I said is what I know.

Things that young people talk about when they meet up

人 - hobbies, life, study, work; 众 - gossip, current affairs

What do young people talk about when they meet up?

回应 - Well, there are many things they can talk about.

细节 1 - To begin with, most young people usually chat about hobbies, life, study or work.

细节 2 - Besides, it's not uncommon to see that many of them also gossip about celebrities, or exchange opinions about current affairs.

收 - That's what I can think of at the moment.

Things that people do on social media

好 - bring positive energy and give others positive feedback to those who do the same; 坏 - cyber-bullying, fake news, scam

What can people do on social media?

细节 1 - Um, first of all, many people can share photos and videos about their life on social media to spread the happiness, and bring positive energy, and give others positive feedback to those who do the same.

细节 2 - By contrast, it's not surprising to witness that some people do harmful even illegal things on social media, such as cyber-bullying, fake news, and scam.

收 - You know, I can't speak for all people, but that's what I have experienced so far.

Reasons that people want to have a family business

人 - wealth; 众 - job opportunities

Why do people want to have a family business?

Honestly, I don't know many people who have or want to have a family business, but if I were them, the reasons could be as follows.

Firstly, to some people, it's an easy way to increase their wealth/income, even become a millionaire overnight, because they work for themselves.

Plus, it can be generally observed that doing family business can also create job opportunities, although they're usually hiring their family members only.

Ways that suggestions and feedback can contribute to personal growth and development

先 - problems/issues; 后 - solution (constructive criticism)

In what ways can suggestions and feedback contribute to personal growth and development?

Well, the first thing that comes to mind is that there should be some problems or issues to be solved. Besides, when suggestions and feedback are given, the purpose should be solving the problems or issues. For example, when students have trouble in their studies, their classmates and teachers should help them find the reasons of their struggle, and then provide some suggestions to solve the problems, instead of criticizing and forcing them to accept other's advice or make changes.

Occasions when parents should encourage their children
内(人后) - depressed/anxious; 外(人前) - make mistakes

When should parents encourage their children?

回应 - Well, I can think of some situations.

细节 1 - To begin with, parents should encourage their children they their kids are depressed and anxious at home, so that they can be confident enough to go out and learn outside their homes.

细节 2 - Besides, it's not surprising to see that when children make silly mistakes in the public, parents usually calm them first rather than scold them in front of others, which is, in a way, an encouragement, since their self-esteem can be protected.

收 - I know there must be more to talk about, but what I said is what I know.

Changes that technology has made to storytelling

内 - content - fairy tales and folklores vs sci-fi; 外 - ways - face-to-face vs multimedia and internet

How has technology changed storytelling?

细节 1 (+回应) - Um, well, the first thing that comes to mind is the content, which has changed from fairy tales and folklores to science-related stories.

细节 2 (+现象句) - It's common to see that the way we tell stories has been developed from face-to-face to multimedia and internet.

收 - Yep, that's what I have in mind of now.

What do old people often do in their daily lives?

回应 - There are many things they do on a regular basis.

细节 - For example, it's common to see that most old people would enjoy their retirement life. To be specific, they can travel, do some sports, read, take care of their grandchildren, and do other activities.

And yet, it's not uncommon to see that few old people are still working to make a living/breadwinner/bring food to the table.

收 - So, you know, it really depends on many factors, such as their health condition, their family size, and social-economic status.

Reasons that young children like to make things by hand

People who are popular at work

内 - personality/character; 外 - appearance/skills

What kinds of people are popular at work?

Well, I can think of several kinds.

Firstly, people who have attractive appearance are usually popular because many people are visual animals.

Besides, it's not uncommon to see that there are always some people who are not beautiful or handsome, but they're still popular among their colleagues, since they have truly interesting souls, I mean, their personalities and characters make them people persons.

Um, that's what I can think of at the moment.

Decisions that young people have to make

大 - education/employment/marriage; 小 - trivial stuff in life - what to eat, what to wear

What kinds of decisions do young people have to make?

Ok, there are some decisions they need to make.

To begin with, they have to make a series of big decisions that could make profound influence in their future, such as higher education, employment, marriage and so on.

Besides, it's common to see that they also make quick decisions on trivial stuff in life, like what to eat and what to wear.

I know that I can't speak for all people, but that's what I've experienced so far.

Popular reading topics

小 - fairy tales, superheroes

大 - current affairs, celebrity gossips, professional skills

What reading topics are popular in your country?

Well, the first thing that comes to mind is a series of topics for adults, like current affairs, celebrity gossips, professional skills and so on. We can read them in books, electronic books, magazines, even videos online.

Besides, it's not surprising to witness that there are also some topics such as fairy tales and superheroes that are popular among children, especially in the form of comics and cartoons.

I know there must be more to talk about, but what I said is what I know.

Differences between doctor and nurses

Job description - diagnosis and surgery/operation; assistance and care to patients

What are the differences between the work of a doctor and a nurse?

Um, let me think, first off, for many doctors, their main job is to diagnose and perform surgery on the patients.

However, for most nurses, their routines are providing assistance to the doctors, and taking care of the patients in the ward.

That's what I have in mind for now.

Reasons that people give up old friends

内 - disagreement on a series of matters - values and goals

外 - lost touch - move away, emigrate, death

Why do we have to give up some old friends?

Um, well, honestly, I'm not sure about why people do that, but if I were them, the reasons could be that firstly, we may have lost touch for eons due to some reasons like moving away, emigration to foreign countries, or death which is tragic.

Secondly, there could be too much disagreement on a series of matters between them, such as values and goals, which is the foundation/cornerstones of a healthy friendship.

I know that I can't speak for all people, but that's what I've experienced so far.

Skills for children

小 - basic skills - put on clothes, use bathroom, brush teeth - complete it by themselves

大 - academic skills - language, mathematics, logical thinking, life skills - cooking, doing laundry

What skills should children learn?

回应 - Well, what they should learn depends on different age groups.

细节 1 - To begin with, for most children who are about 2 or 3 years old, they should learn some basic skills such as putting on clothes, using bathroom, brushing teeth by themselves.

细节 2 - By contrast, for those who are older, above 6 years old, or after they go to school, the majority of them should learn more advanced skills, like language, mathematics, logical thinking, which are academic skills, and cooking and laundry, which are life skills.

收 - I know there must be more to talk about, but what I said is what I know.

Differences between online shopping and in-store shopping

Time

Place

What are the differences between online shopping and in-store shopping?

回应 - Oh, I can think of several differences between them.

细节 1 - When it comes business/opening hours, most online shopping websites are available 24/7 but the majority of physical stores usually have regular opening and closing time.

细节 2 - Regarding venues, all brick-and-mortar stores are at fixed locations and it takes time to get there, however, all online shopping platforms are in people's phones or tablets, and we can access to them simply by tapping our fingers on the screen.

common items that people tend to lose easily

小 - keys, cards, stationery - pencils, erasers, rulers, mobile phones

大 - umbrella, clothes, bicycles

What are some common items that people tend to lose easily?

细节 1 - Well, the first thing that comes to mind is those small items, like keys, cards, pencils, and those mobile phones that are small and sleek.

细节 2 - Besides, it's not uncommon to see that some people lose some bigger items easily, such as umbrellas, clothes, even bicycles if they're parked unlocked in some areas with high crime rate.

Reasons people not care about their actions in public

Why do some people not care about their actions in public?

Um, well, I'm not sure about why some people do that, but if I were them, the reasons could be that firstly, they're either too ignorant to do that, or they're doing that with particular purposes, like giving street performance. Besides, in some urgent situations, especially related to life-or-death, most people wouldn't care about their action because to survive is the most important thing. For example, when a bus full of people has an accident, very few people would care about their action for breaking the bus window to escape.

facilities in a park

What facilities are needed in a park?

Um, there are several types of facilities.

First off, most parks facilitate people with recreational equipment such as slides and basketball courts.

Besides, it's also common to see that many parks have public toilets to meet people's basic needs such as the call of nature.

I know there must be more to talk about, but what I said is what I know.

Differences between big cities and small cities

What are the differences between big cities and small cities?

Oh, I can think of some differences.

In terms of infrastructure, most big cities in China have better infrastructure, such as roads, bridges, buildings etc. while in the majority of small cities, it's less advanced.

(When it comes to population, it's pervasive that almost all large cities can accommodate more people, whereas many small cities have relative low population.)

3. Why do some people enjoy dangerous sports?
4. Why do some people like to wear expensive clothes?
5. Why do some people not like going to parties?
6. Why do many companies offer prizes to their customers?
7. Why are so many young people obsessed with short videos?

Oh, honestly, I'm not sure about why they are like that, but if I were them, the reasons could be that

First and foremost, many young people are under great pressure from school, workplace, life etc. and so they're in great need of relaxation and entertainment.

Besides, it's common to see that the majority of short videos, especially on those social media platforms like Tik Tok and YouTube, are usually simple, short, and interesting, and the platforms often feed those young people with new short videos according to their preference/likes/liking (, which keeps them in a loop). That's why they find it hard to stop.

I know that I can't speak for all of them, but that's how I see it in general.

Do old people prefer to stay at home or go outside? Why?

Ok, honestly, it varies from person to person.

On the one hand, some old people choose to stay at home due to their physical condition.

For example, they have some problems with their legs and knees.

On the other hand, it's not surprising to witness that some other old people are keen on going outside to do many activities such as traveling, hiking, or just having a sunbath on the beach. The reason is that they're physically active and doing outdoor activities is their habit.

I know that I can't speak for all people, but that's what I have experienced so far.

Do you think children should learn through playing games or under pressure?

Well, I think it depends on their age/which age groups they belong to.

Most young children should learn through playing games because they're not mentally strong enough to handle the pressure. In fact, they need something fun to help them keep their interest in their study. So, playing games is a good choice.

On the contrary, many teenagers should learn under pressure since they need to prepare for the pressure from the society (their adulthood). You know, it's common to see that the majority of year 9 and year 12 students are facing great pressure from the entrance examinations to the next level of education.

收

Do you think the ability to compete is natural or learned?

Well, it varies from person to person.
